MISS GRACE DARRELL'S STATEMENT

When in Presence of Her Guardian Girl Is Wholly Swayed by His Will.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 2.-The most re markable case in the annals of crime in Florida is that known as the Grace Darrell

It is strongly suggestive of a real Svengali and Trilby, James Armstrong, the reputed guardian of Miss Darrell, being the Svengali and that young woman the Tril-

The case started in Sumter county two years ago, where the Armstrong family, now residing in Jacksonville, then lived Grace Darrell claimed to have been kidnaped, taken to the woods, stripped of part of her clothing and tled to a tree, where she was found the next morning.

Four young men were charged with the crime, were arrested and were convicted but a new trial was granted. The young men were afterwards arrested and tried here in the United States court, charged with sending lewd and obscene letters to Miss Darrell. Numerous letters were sub. mitted in evidence and the case was sensational in the extreme.

The prisoners were convicted, but again the court set as:de the decision.

Recently Miss Darrell made a sworn con fession to Major St. Clair-Abrams, counse for the defense, saying that her testimony was false, and that the letters were written by Armstrong and others for the pur pose of convicting the young men.

When the fact that she had made this onfession became known, she was taken to the newspaper offices by Armstrong and there denied ever having made it.

Today she was brought into court and there again she denied having made the confession, despite the fact that it was witnessed by four prominent and reliable citizens. Armstrong was present when these denials were made. Tonight Miss Darrell escaped from the Armstrong residence and now she says that the confessions were

Senator Tillman Smashes Into the Inaction Programme.

Question of Veracity Suddenly Arises In the Senate.

TILLMAN Debate in the Upper House Anything but Cool-Senator from South Carolina Wanted To Take a Resolution from the Committee.

Washington June 3-Senator Tillman shook the red flag of sugar investigation in the face of the senate republican bull today, and as the result of a very lively discussion, in which several senators took part, the South Carolinian scored a point. He got from members of the sub-committee, to which has been referred his investiga tion resolution, a promise that the resolution shall be reported to the senate at no late day. That is what the aggressive Carolinian was after. He wants action. He had read apparently authorized newspaper statements which told of a purpose to suppress his resolutions and he didn't propose the should be suppressed if he could help it. It was with this purpose that he moved this morning that the committee be discharged from the consideration of his resolution and that an immediate vote on that resolution be had by the senate In supporting his motion he took vigorous occasion to speak of the charges made by ex-Senator Butler against him and his connection with the dispensary. He declar-ed that these charges were stale and re-cited how, in spite of them, the people of his state had chosen him to represent them in the senate. He courted the fullest investigation. With regard to his resolution to investigate the charges which had been made in the public press against senators and against a part at least of a senate committee, he declared that until there was a full investigation and these charges were refuted the senate stood convicted before the American people.

With characteristic force and vigor Senator Tillman presented the views of the people with regard to this constant suggestion and sometimes direct charge of corruption by the sugar trut.

Gallinger, of New Hampshire, and Jones of Arkansas, who are on the sub-committee in charge of the resolution, that there was no disposition to smother it but that it would be reported soon, Tillman withdrew his motion. He does not intend that the thing shall be allowed to die out if he can Tillman Gets Up Steam. The incident took place before the tariff bill was taken up. Mr. Tillman then came forward with another phase of the pro posed sugar investigation, closing with a motion to discharge the committee on con tingent expense from further consideration of the resolution recently offered by him to stock.

The motion contemplated an immediate vote by the senate on the sugar investigation resolution. Mr. Tillman snoke in his usual vehement style, which attracted much attention and drew crowds to galleries. He began by presenting a clipping from a Haverhill, N. H., newspaper referring to the recent speech of Mr. Till. proposed sugar inquiry would be supple-mented by an inquiry into the charges of ex-Senator Butler in connection with Mr. Tillman's amendment of the South Carolina dispensary. Mr. Tillman said this was an attempt to divert attention from the sugar scandal, and the attempt would fail. He had come from the plow to the governorship of South Carolina over the prostrate forms of those constituting the old regime, and it had won him many enemies. All the crimes in the decalogue had been charged against him. He had appealed to his people and they had sustained him canvass in which Mr. Butler had sought to "fly blow" his (Tillman's) character. Now the same old eggs were brought forward. If any man desired to look into his character, then, said Tillman, he courted the fullest inquiry. And any other sen-ator, against whom there was the breath of scandal, should have the charges probed

New York, June 3 .- Five enormous tanks each containing 13,000 gallons of water, fell five stories through the new building of David S. Brown & Co., soap manufacturers at Twelfth avenue, Fifty-first and Fifty-second streets this morning, burying two men under thousands of tons of de

The body of William Frazer, forty years old, a surveyor in the employ of the Otis Elevator Company, was taken from the ruins this afternoon. The missing are: JACOB JACOBSON, a carpenter.

The place was nearly ready for occu pancy. The tanks were to have contained coap fat. They were put in by the Cotes ron works, of Cotesville, Pa.

Alexander Brown, the brick contractor Henry F. Kilburn, the architect, and Hamilton, inspector for the iron works contractors, were arrested charged with homicide. The five tanks shot through the five floors like a stone dropping through so much space. There were fifteen men in the building at the time of the accident. They were scattered around the factory. There was not a second's warning of the fall of the tanks. They had been filling with water for testing and were nearly

Architect Kilburn said that he had had personal charge of the construction of the building, which had been planned by him and that it was one of the finest buildings of its kind he had ever seen. The walls of the factory were a third thicker than the specifications had called for. All the work was of the best material and workman ship and no expense had been spared in the construction of a portion of the new building or in fitting it up as a factory. He could give no opinion as to what caused the accident. Alexander Brown, the masonry contractor, said the accident was probably due to defective girders. He said that the masonry walls were first-class inevery respect and had been put up under close supervision. Another phase was put on the question of inculpation by the decision of ex-United States Superintendent of Buildings Hugh Angler, now with the street cleaning department of this city. He took up some of the mortar in the refuse and pronounced it of a bad quality.

"It's nothing but mud," he said. Samples of the mortar will be examined by experts. District Attorney Olcott will attend the inquest and will prosecute those

There is some discussion as to the com bined weight of the tanks on the floor and the weight the floor should sustain. It was said by a representative of the Cotesville iron works that the floor should have sustained a weight of twenty times the weight of one of the filled tanks.

Today at noon, when Sheriff Westcott learned that Governor Atkinson had re spited Allen until June 11th, he ordered the death watch removed from Allen. This watch has been kept on Allen ever since he was resentenced to be hanged by Judge Candler several weeks ago.

Allen felt much relieved today when the death watch was removed. He is now very hopeful that he will never die on the gallows. His attorney, Colonel Preston, has defended forty persons for murder and not one of them has ever been hanged.

Allen believes that this same luck will accompany him that attended Preston's

Governor Atkinson today telephoned Judge Felton, of the Macon circuit, that he had respited Tom Allen until Friday, June 11th, in consequence of the supersedeas granted by Judge Reese, until the extraor-dinary motion for a new trial can be heard. Tomorrow was the time appointed by Judge Candler, of the Stone Mountain cir-cuit, for Tom Allen to be hanged. It is not known before whom the motion for a new trial will be argued. Under the law, Judge Felton has the right to select any judge he pleases and invite him to hear the argument. It is said that Judge Felton will probably request Judge Candler to hear the extraordinary motion for a new trial. Allen's attorneys will appeal the case to the reme court of Georgia, and, if the deci-of the lower court is affirmed, Allen's attorneys will ask the governor to com-mute the death sentence to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary.

GRADUATED MANY YEARS AGO. Class of 1877 Will Have Big Reunion

This Commencement.

Athens, Ga., June 3.—(Special.)—In all probability the class of 1877, University of Georgia, will celebrate the twentieth year of their graduation by a reunion in Athens Mr. E. H. Dorsey, of this city, has writ ten a number of letters in regard to proposed reunion and the prospects for holding it are bright. It will be held on the campus Tuesday, June 15th, and a programme of exercises to be arranged will be rendered. The class of '7 had a large number of bright members and within the past twenty years they have distinguished them-William Y. Atkinson is governor of Georgia after having achieved a great reputa-tion as a leader. William M. Howard is a member of congress from the eighth district of Georgia Howard Thompson, of Gainesville, and Wallace Fraser, of Savannah, have achieved success as solicitors general of their respective circuits.

Andrew J. Cobb, after becoming one the ablest members of the Georgia bar, is now a justice of the supreme court.

C. Murphy Candler, of Decatur, has achieved a splendid success at the bar and in the legislature.

Alexander R. Lawton, of Savannah; W. R. McIntyre, of Thomasville; R. M. Holley, of Falmetto; Moses M. Smith, of Texas, and S. L. Weaver, of Alabama, have done well at the bar.

Hamilton McWhorter, of Lexington, Ga., has in addition to succeeding at the bar, graced the bench and sustained himself graced the bench and sustained himself as a judge.

Among the professors given to Georgia by the class of '77 are John E. Witherspoon, of Columbus; A. D. Smith, of East Lake, Ala., and James C. Hinton, of Macon.

The solid merchants who came from this class are E. H. Dorsey, of Athens; O. L. Green, of Fort Valley; George R. Alexander, of Savannah, and M. Y. McIntyre, of Savannah.

Robert A. Simpson, of Washington, Ga.,

Savannah.

Robert A. Simpson, of Washington, Ga., is the only physician the class of '77 contains, while E. M. Mallette, of Thomas-ville, is the sole insurance man in the lot. George W. P. Coates, Bliss Woodward and H. B. Mitchell turned their attention to the soil and James S. Hamilton is in the mining business.

The reunion of the class of '77 promises to be one of the most pleasant of the many social features of commencement.

Bonds Were Printed in New Orleans and Disposed of in Foreign Countries.

New York, June 3.-One of the most extensive counterfeiting plots ever discovered by the secret service was brought to light today when Richard D. Requesens and his wife, Eugunia, were arraigned before Commissioner Shields, charged with issuing counterfeit bonds of the Costa Rica government of the denomination of 100 pesos. The prisoners were arrested by officers of the United States secret service on an order issued by Chief Hazen, based on information received from the consul general of the United States at Port Limon, Costa Rica. Requesens has a printing establishment in Maiden Lane, this city, and he was arrested there. No plates, dies or other counterfeiting tools were found in the rooms. The woman who was arrested, and who said she was Eugenia Requesens, is fine looking and apparently about thirty-five years old. She told Chief Hazen that she met Requesens several months ago and that he told her he had "a big scheme to float in Costa Rica." She said: "We went to Port Limon about the middle of March. As to this charge of at-Costa Rican government I can say positively that I have no knowledge of it whatever. If my husband attempted to put any such bonds on the market I can say positively that I knew nothing of such

Richard D. Requesens, the alleged principal in the floating of the counterfeit bonds, refused to make any statement. Both prisoners were held in default of $3,000 bail for examination on June 16th.

The counterfeits are excellent imitation of the original bonds and bear the signatures of the president, F. Pesulta, and Secretary Octunoe. It is said they were issued from New Orleans. It was reported this afternoon that fully $1,250,000 of these bonds had been floated, but only a small portion of the bonds, it is said, have been marketed in this city. There is a story to the effect that Requesens and his wife went to Costa Rica to float the bonds in an effort to benefit insurrectionists in that country. It is also said that a large amount of the bonds were placed among the conspirators against the Costa Rica government. Alfred Walcott, an English walter in the Hotel Imperial, in San Jose, Costa Rica, is said to be under arrest there, and it is also stated that 847,000 pesos of counterfeit notes were found in his possession. It is further claimed that a bundle of the counterfelts was found in a sofa which was shipped from this city.

Thief Hazen said tonight that he expected witnesses from Costa Rica to arrive

Case of the Unfortunate Artist Arouses

Sympathy on His Behalf. The story of the downfall of J. W. Hall, the young artist, who was convicted on Wednesday for forging a check with which to buy a meal, has aroused consid-erable sympathy among the philanthropists of the city.

The following plea on behalf of the young man was received last night by The Constitution:

"In your morning issue I read a story so sad that language fails me to express my sorrow. My pen almost refuses to do its duty. It was the case of young Mr. Hall. I write to beg some noble woman who has time, health and strength to visit the fathers and mothers of this fair city and time, health and strength to visit the fathers and mothers of this fair city and ask of them to place their name on a petition to the governor for executive clemency ere this young man of ability, at heart honest, and industrious, whose only crime consisted in the fact that he was tempted perhaps by the fearful gnawings of hunger, to do the deed of which he stands convicted. It is hard to beg; it is hard to steal; it is very hard to starve; but, if one retains his reason in such a trying time, he would certainly realize that death itself were preferable to the penitentiary. I am a mother who has had the sadly sweet pleasure of sharing hunger and cold, the past winter, with my boys. I have greeted them with an endearing name, and pleasant smile, while my heart was breaking. God knows that this boy might have found grace to bear all if the tender touch of a mother's hand had led him on. Will not some mother, I ask again, in sympathy for his mother, whether living or dead, and in remembrance of the love that she bears her own dear sons, ere it is too late, do for this young man in the trying hour of his life, upon which depends the making of an honorable citizen or perhaps a crushed and bopeless life, do by him as she would wish others to do by her and hers? With a prayer I send this message abroad, fraught with all the love of a mother's heart.

Claim Is Made That Every State Should Control Sale of Liquor in Its Borders.

Washington, June 3 .- (Special.) - The ten perance elements all over the country are coming to the support of Senator Tillman in his desire to have light thrown on the question as to what legislation, if any, is necessary to give full effect of the law which accords to each state the right to regulate the liquor traffic within its bor

People who have been disposed to criticise the dispensary system and its author are with him in the fight which comes as the result of Judge Simonton's recent decision. Senator Hoar is one of the strong supporters of the Tillman position and most of the members of the senate believe with him that Judge Simonton's decision is in the teeth of the Wilson law which was made to fit the Iowa case some years ago and under the operations of which the Maine law is made effective.

That law was passed in 1890 and gives, in as plain language as a law can to each state, the same power to regulate the sale of liquors that are brought into that state as the state has over liquors produce the state, and the law adds that they "shall not be exempt therefrom by reason of being introduced therein in original packages or otherwise. Judge Simonton bases his decision, as it is understood here, on the contention that the South Carolina law is not an exercise of the police power of the state. That it is the intention of congress to give absolute control of the liquor traffic to the individual states there can be no doubt and if further legislation is nece sary to perfect existing law on that point it will be enacted.

More Carriers for Atlanta.

National Committeeman Lyons called at the postoffice department today to recommend an increase in the letter carrier ser vice at the Atlanta office. Assurances were given that by July 1st the department would probably authorize an increase of five or six in the carrier force. It was sug gested that eight or ten carriers would no be inadequate for the growing demands of the Atlanta postoffice, and it is likely if the proper showing can be made by the postmaster, that the increase may be eight at the least.

Has Not Lost All Hope.

If the supreme bench decides that ap torneys today is of enough weight to set a date for the arguing of a motion for a new trial based on the evidence, then the young man will not die tomorrow.

It is a faint gleam of hope, but it is enough to make the attorneys fight all the harder for the boy murderer's life. Gov-ernor Atkinson has refused to interfere in the case. This morning he wired Colone Thornton as follows:

"I cannot grant your request for respite

"W. Y ATKINSON, Governor."

This morning the defense secured an affi-davit from Henry Hicks, a countryman. Hicks's testimony was highly important, as he was a witness of the killing and in his affidavit tells how it looked to him. A notary public was carried to the jail to secure the affidavit of White, that the prisoner did not know of the newly discovered. oner did not know of the newly discovered evidence before, and the attorneys for the young man signed similar affidavits. Hicks, in his affidavit, swore that on the day of the killing he had a full view of the scene. He says that J. A. White fired at Jackson three times and killed him. It was the old man and not Henry White wh fired the fatal shots, he says. When Jackson went around the corner he had his pistol in his hand. If Henry White fired, he did not strike Jackson. B. S. Miller and D. L. Parmer swore that Hicks was relia-

Colonel Thornton argued the motion for extraordinary trial before Judge Butt shortly before noon. He asked that the judge grant an order of supersedeas and that June 24th be set as a time for the state to come forward and show why the court should not grant a new trial under the newly dis-covered evidence. Mr. Gallinger then secured recognition for a statement of the attitude of the committee, he being the senior member in the absence of the chairman, Mr. Jones of Nevada. "Every man in public life feels the sting of false charges," he said, "and must the senate pause every time such ac cusations are brought, to spend its time and the money of the United States in pursu-ing these charges? Mr. Vest suggested that there was a precedent for ignoring charges against the personal character of a senator. He referred to the attitude of Senator Thurman when an investigation was proposed against one of his associates. He had held that the courts were open for private redress and that it was not for the senate to undertake to right a private wrong. There had not been one dissenting voice from this position, Mr. Vest asserted, and it was not for the senate to put aside its public business to attend to the private character of senators.

his rear, he said, while he was engaged in a fire in front.

His resolution simply sought to determine whether the finance committee was the creature of the sugar trust, whether senators were the "tools and paid agents of the sugar trust," or whether they were here performing their duty as honorable men.

Mr. Gallinger, proceeding, said the people of each senator's state must pass upon his character. The people of South Carolina had passed on the character of the senator of South Carolina, and that was sufficient vindication, without an appeal to the senate.

sufficient vindication, without an appeal to the senate.

"Can Senator Aldrich and the committee deny a hearing." queried Mr. Tillman, "when the paper making the charge offered to appear and prove the charge?"

Mr. Gallinger said this investigation of charges might go on indefinitely. Suppose another paper made another charge. Must the senate start an investigation of that charge? And then suppose other charges were made, must further investigation be started? Was that the kind of business the Question of Veracity Interjected. Mr. Gallinger was led into further reply. He referred to the futility of investigations and the humiliation to which senators were subjected in being brought before the for mer sugar investigation. He again pro-tested against action which would degrade the committee having charge of the resolution. At this stage an exciting colloquy occurred which appeared to involve a question of veracity.

Mr. Tillman interrupted to state that he had it from the chairman of the committee that he was ready at any time to report the resolution back. Mr. Gallinger said such an assertion could not be correct, as the committee had met on the day of the alleged statement by the chairman and had not reached a determination.

"The chairman told me that he was ready to report," insisted Mr. Tillman. Here Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, the other member of the committee, arose and in positive tones declared: "The chairman could not have made such a statement as it was not so."

"But he did make it," again asserted
Mr. Tfilman. "Then let him make it here," demanded

Then let him make it here, demanded Mr. Jones.

"But aside from this," proceeded Mr. Tillman, "I cannot shut my eyes to facts connected with this subject. I believe the senate of the United States in an honorable body. I believe senators are gentlemen, as a rule."

There was suppressed laughter at this qualification. Here Mr. Hoar, of Massachusetts, demanded a vote on the motion and Mr. Gallinger moved to lay the motion on the table. Mr. Tiliman again arose. In favor of the fact that two members of the committee had given assurance that the resolution would be reported he would, he said, withdraw the motion so that sen-ators could vote on the main question when presented without complications as to com-

During the debate on the Frye bill Mr. Payne, republican, of New York, who had charge of the measure, stated that the republicans to a man stood by the speaker. Columbia, S. C., June 3.-(Special.)-Colonel Wille Jones, chairman of the state board of control, who was charged by L. J. Williams yesterday with a number of more or less serious irregularities, makes a statement. In this Colonel Jones says:

"Mr. Williams charges, first, that I, as hairman, have disregarded the rules of he board by ordering goods charged to be dispensaries in Columbia cheaper than the dispensaries in Countries elsewhere.

"This has reference to a special order made by Mr. E. W. Robertson, chairman of the local board of control at Columbia, for goods, the major portion of which were not kept in stock, but were a very fine class of goods, ordered largely from the house of Park & Tilford, of New York, for the special Christmas trade in this city as an experiment merely; and in order to make a trial of this experiment, at the special request of the chairman of the local the goods were placed to the Colspecial request of the chairman of the board, the goods were placed to the Col-umbia dispensers at 20 per cent profit in-stead of 25 per cent, as usually charged. ead of 25 per cent, as usually charged his would, under like circumstances, have een done in favor of any local board in

In no instance have I ever ordered whiskies from parties other than those from whom the board made purchases, except upon some special order from a county dispenser.

"Third, Mr. Williams further charges me with an unjustifiable violation of law in receiving and paying for eleven car loads of glass more than ordered by the board."

Colonel Jones explains this at length. showing it was not an overshipment, as some months previously an order had been given by Commissioner Mixson for twentyfive cars of glass, with the proviso that he could cancel same at any time before delivery, provided the state would take all the glass made up at the time the order to cancel was delivered. "Fourth, Mr. Williams further charges me with derelition of duty in not paying the drafts for whisky purchases within the time limited by contract, and further charges that the state has been loser thereby. In reply to this charge I desire to say that prior to November, 1896, the rule of the board was that no draft should be paid until the whisky should be received in the building and checked up by the commissioner, and that until then every draft was promptly paid as soon as the same was reported by the commissioner.

"The cause of the delay in the payment of the drafts was the inability of the commissioner to get the goods within the warehouse and then check off the bill of lading prior to the maturity of the draft. This November order was passed in order to remedy this evil, and since then the commissioner has ever been urged to promptly check up the involces, whether in store or at the depot, and as soon as this was done and the proper evidence furnished me, I have in all cases promptly signed the warrant for the payment of the draft.

"Our purchases, we consider, have been made judiciously, and in price and quality will compare most favorably with purchases made by our predecessors. In the one item of rebates there have been saved to the state in the past year more than $41,000."

As to the charge that he lost the state from $30,000 to $105,000 by not paying drafts promptly and so getting the discounts, Colonel Jones submits a report from three nbers of the board, Messrs. Cooper. Douthit and Miles, in which they show that had the drafts not paid within ter days been paid promptly (and it was impossible to do so because the goods could not be checked up) the state would have saved only $277.44. Colonel Jones concludes as follows:

"It would be difficult to conduct a business of such magnitude, especially by persons wholly inexperienced, without having it appear that some acts have been done and some duties performed which, when submitted to the test of a retrospect, will not be subject to criticism. In the trying position of chairman of the board of control, duties have been imposed upon me of novel import, but in the discharge of them all I have tried to execute to the letter the will of the board.

all I have tried to execute to the letter the will of the board.

"I was made chairman of the board upon its organization in April, 1896, and until April, 1877, no complaint was made by any member of the board against my methods of executing the orders of the board. The transactions were fully reported to the board, and so far as I knew with but few exceptions, met their approval. These complaints were brought to my attention by Mr. Williams about the 1st of April, 1897, when he appeared as candidate for the position of chairman of the board, and it has been only since that time that I have had any reason to believe that my management did not meet the full approval of the board."

Board Held Another Meeting. The board of control met again this morning. It had been known that a caucus of Evans-Scruggs forces was held last night, and the results indicated that they one indicating how valuable is the state's guarantee of "chemical purity" branded on each bottle. Charleston is making great preparations for the reception of the new electric system of street railreads which will be in active operation within the next two or three

For years a fight has been on foot to give the city rapid transit, but it seemed hard to get the people interested to surrender the old horse car lines. At last this came, however, and a company, with a capital stock of $850,000, began building track, covering every part of town, is ready, and the only delay is being caused on the finishing touches of the power

Forty handsome cars have already been shipped here and others will be purchased as the demands show. The road is ac-knowledged to be one of the best in the outh and is built to last for years.

The city of Charleston will be like a different place when the horse cars have b driven out of it. That unsatisfactory system has been in use here for more than a quarter of a century.

The people are wondering how fast the population will be thinned out when the population will be thinned out trolley cars begin to spin over Charleston's street. To show how this feeling prevails one leading druggist ordered a big of crutches, and had them displayed in show window, with a sign reading, "Pre-pare for the Trolley." This seemed to frighten some of the old so badly that there was talk people so badly that there was talk of making application for an injunction to have the old system continued in effect.

Northern capital was brought here to build the road. The two horse car lines were purchased and the city railway now owns every foot of track in the city. It is generally conceded that the company will put in low bids for lighting the city and it stands a good chance of securing the contract

It will be a gala day for Charleston when the first electric car is run. The company expects to begin operating by June 20th. NON-FRATERNITY MEN STICK.

War on Greek Letter Societies Is Being Pushed. Greenville, S. C., June 3 .- (Special.)-The war between the Greek letter societies and the non-fraternity element in Furman university continues unabated. The non-fraternity men have formed an organization numbering sixty-five men, which will actively oppose the fraternity men, who number only thirty-seven.

The fraternities having chapters in Furman are Chi Psi, Kappa Alpha (Southern)

The non-fraternity men first petitioned the faculty for the abolition of the fraternities, but the faculty replied that it had no jurisdiction. A petition has therefore been sent to the board of trustees asking that the fraternities be made a feature of the college so as to be subject to its discipline like the literary societies or else that they be abolished.

Whether or not the fraternities are known, but it is supposed that their tac men allege that the fraternities create "college aristocracy" and form combinations in college to the exclusion of nor fraternity men in choosing society and student officers. It is also said that some of the non-fraternity men declare that they will leave the university if the petition is not granted and that among these are to South Carolina were settled by the State Press Association yesterday. They decided that the dispensary system as now conducted was at an end, and that high license was the only solution.

They determined to call a primary for he nomination of a democratic candidate for United States senator in August, and hey placed out a number of candidates. The decision of Judge Simonton was made after their departure, and during their stay in Nashville many affairs of keen interest to the state have arisen.

The members of the association were seen on their private car yesterday after noon, and fully discussed the problem before their people.

The editors all applauded the expres sion of Colonel M. B. McSweeney, lieu-

Judge Simonton has struck me, and that is that there can be nothing like local option in South Carolina. He declares that the present system is in direct violation that whisky can be sold in any part of the state in original packages. Charleston, S. C., June 3 .- (Special.)-The vholesale grocerymen and the ex-liquor dealers in Charleston seem to be holding back somewhat in ordering liquors fo sale in the original package, as allowed under Judge Simonton's decision. They have placed orders but the stuff is not to be shipped here until some definite steps are taken by the state administra-tion. Since the decision was rendered the state constables, who have been idle for weeks, have started out on wholesale raids once more and have succeeded in capturing a great deal of contraband liquor. of his decision, but it deals only with the ercook Company. The court enjoins the defendants from seizing or attempting to selze in transit or after arrival or otherwise carrying away or confisc ing any of the wines and liquors brought o this state for sale and bearing the stamp of the Vandercooks. They are further ordered not to interfere with liquors sent here to be warehoused and sold in original packages. The defendants are al-so enjoined from interfering with or hin-dering and preventing the complainants or agents in any way whatsoever or agents in any way wantsoever from carrying on interstate commerce and inter-course in such liquors as may be imported to South Carolina by citizens, the right to which is secured to them by the constitu-tion of the United States, or in preventtion of the United States, or in preventing in any way any person from engaging in such trade with the Vandercooks or from holding, using or consuming wines and liquors sent here from California or imported and sold in original packages in this state by the complainants to the citizens of South Carolina.

Attorney General Barber came here from Columbia today to have a consultation with Judge Simonton about the injunction, but he declined to say anything about the conference. He said the state has not yet decided what course to take to meet the emergercy caused by the granting of the injunction.

PECULIAR POISONS. GENERATED IN THE HUMAN BODY.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of disease and death (called by scientists Ptomaines), are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspensis.

The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak, and lacking in red corpuscies; poisoning the brain causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak, and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

Bad digestion irritates the heart, causing palpitation and finally bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing Bright's disease and diabetes.

And this is so because every organ, every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fall to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsis Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsis Tablets will cure every form of stomach. They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsis Tablets at 50 cents full sized package or by mail by enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., but ask your druggist first.

Five months of noble, untiring, Christian work in the Girls' Night school, on Marietta street, were crowned last night by closing exercises, beautiful as the purpose of the school is great, and interesting as thirty-nine pretty, talented young girls could make them by their simple and successful attempt to please the large number of friends who were present.

The exercises were held in the Marietta Street school building, and were attended by hundreds of people who feel an interest in the work of the school young pupils who every night this year have been striving earnestly to acquire the knowledge that their work prevents them from getting during the day. To say that the exercises were splendid hardly tells the story of the excellent entertainment and the many charming and inimitable incidents of the evening. There have been many finer commencements in this city and many in which a greater show was made, but there have been none that have been more pleasant or more entertaining than was that of the night

Mrs. Hemphill, Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Milier, the three ladies who organized the school, sat in delighted surprise as one after another the bright-faced, intelligent giris mounted the stage and in songs and recitations proved to the audience that the purpose of the school had not falled, but that it had been rewarded by the richest of success.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Mr. John F. Barciay. He invoked the biessings of God upon the school and prayed "that he would continue to shower His smiles upon the work of the nobe ladies who have so unseitship devoted their time and labors to the education of young giris who are deprived by force of circumstan from enjoying the benefits of the daily

The song which followed, "Won't You Come to My Tea Party?" sang by Miss Maud Williams, was a delightful portion of the programme.

Miss Lena Boyle came next with a recitation called "Fairy Bell."

The vocal duet which followed was much enjoyed. Two of the prettiest and smartest little girls of the school, Misses Maud

Williams and Kitty Adkins, sang "I Don't Want To Play in Your Yard." The sing-ing was splendid, but the acting of the two ittle girls was better.

One of the best recitations was the ludicrourly funny speech by Miss Portia Daniel, called a "Mustard Plaster." This

"The Widow's Lament" was the next recitation, by Miss Essie Silvey. The recitation was followed by a song entitled "A Simple Sum." This excellent composition was sung by Misa Lillie Wilson and the school.

Miss Minnie Herndon recited "A Storm at Sea" very happily.

The closing recitation on the programme was "After the Ball," spoken by Miss Susie Worham. The Prizes Are Delivered.

After the recitations and songs Colonel W. A. Hemphill, as master of ceremonies, delivered the prizes to the pupils. The first prize for proficiency in scholar-ship was won by Miss Mary Lou Cochran. She was given a handsome prize, awarded by Mrs. W. A. Hemphill.

The prizes for deportment were divided by Misses Lena Boyle and Hattle Wright. The first prize was awarded by Mr. John F. Barclay and the second by Mrs. A. B. Gresham.

Airs. Carlton Miller, one of the committee in charge of the school, was called upon and she made a bright talk on the past and future of the school.

Mrs. John F. Barclay made a short speech encouraging the pupils and friends to expect better and brighter results even than the school has already realized.

Miss Lulu Beile Hemphill was asked to recite and she very gracefully responded with one of James Whitcomb Riley's gems, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine."

Mrs. A. B. Gresham, the efficient teacher of the night school, expressed her feelings of pleasure in a few happy words.

When Mrs. Gresham finished talking Colonel Hemphill said he had never enjoyed anything quite so well as the evening's exercises, and he felt so good he wanted to give three cheers for the school, but he wasn't outside, so he regretted that he could not give expression to his feelings as he would like to. It was suggested by Mrs. Hemphill that as three cheers could not be properly given that a handkerchief salute be given. This was done and in a few seconds the room was a whirl of waving handkerchiefs.

The audience and school sang "God Be kerchiefs.

The audience and school sang "God Be with Us," and the exercises were closed.

As an educated animal, not devoid of a certain sagacious instinct called pride, she would prefer that her bed should be not only comfortable, but soft and iuxurious, of ornamented rosewood and suffocated with exquisite draperies. She would prefer that her roof should be not only dry, but made in the Quoen Anne style, and covered in the Quoen Anne style, and covered in the face of men and angels with varietated titles.

Then Declared He Would Not Unlock the Bank Vault.

RECEIVER THREATENED A

Spiers Finally Consented To Undo the Combination and the Receivership Was Postponed and the Court Hearing Proceeded Regularly.

Startling sensations came to light yesterday in the situation of the United States Bond and Mortgage Company.

The huge vault in which the books and papers of the company were securely ocked was sealed to the officers of the company and the only person who knew the combination to the vault positively declined to open the door. Mr. J. P. Spier, the secretary and treasurer of the company, held the key to the situation as well as to the safe, and he declined to open the door of the vault and deliver the books to his successor who was elected Wednesday night at a stormy meeting of the directors of the company.

It will be remembered that an application for receiver for the United States Bond and Mortgage Company was filed several weeks ago. This is the company in which Harry Cassin was a large owner and interested party, and when his arrest and indictment occurred, there were a number of stockholders of the company who believed that the affairs of the company were in a bad condition. The receiver, however, was never appointed and nothing more than a restraining order was allowed.

Yesterday afternoon the original petiti asking for the appointment of a receiver was reached before Judge Lumpkin in chambers. Attorney Lavender R. Ray, representing the complainants in the case, stated to the court that he was ready, pro-vided the other side could produce the books vided the other side could produce the bo and papers which they had been summ to bring into court.

Several attorneys were upon their feet from the bench.

"The books are locked in the vault, may it please the court," said Attorney Malvern Hill. "We have made every effort to secure the books, but there is but one person knows the combination and that man retuses to open the door of the safe and we have not been able to comply with the re-quest of the other side."

All eyes were turned upon Mr. J. W. Spier, the secretary and treasurer of the company. Mr. Spier sat among the crowd of attorneys. He looked fixedly into the eye of his accuser.

"That is the situation," said Mr. Thomas to the vault, but we have pleaded with him in every manner possible to open the door, but he has doggedly refused. He is no longer an officer of the company, as Mr. M. B. Torbett has been elected as his suc cessor. Didn't Know the Officers. Mr. Spier was sworn by Attorney Ray, and the officer was asked if he knew who the officers of the United States Bond and Mortgage Company were. The question had been raised on of the service of the notice to produce the books and papers of the company. T notice had been served upon Mr. Spier as secretary and treasurer of the company, and the point was made that the se should have been made either upon the president or the vice president, "I don't know who are the officers of the company," said Mr. Spier, as he retu the flery stare of the attorneys. "I don't know whether Mr. Gress is president or whether Mr. Lester is the president of the company.

"There was an election on May 5th, at which time I was told that Mr. Gress was elected president and Mr. Lester vice president, but as both men have denied they occupied these positions I am at a loss to say who are the officers. There is so my ramification about the situation that I confess I do not know anything about the elected secretary and treasurer, but I was informed by the president or one who was said to have been elected president that I had been elected to the office which I now

The European Basis of Wages. In another column we print a very interesting article from The Springfield Republican, which is in the nature of a commentary on some remarks made by the financial editor of The Boston Commercial Bulletin as to the drift and tendency of business and trade.

Now, The Boston Commercial Bulle tin is a high tariff, gold standard paper, while The Springfield Republican is a free trade, gold standard paper. The Commercial Bulletin believes thorough ly in the gold standard, while The Springfield Republican has its doubts about it, favoring it, but occasionally lifting the curtain to give its readers glimpse of the sordid greed that insists on the gold standard; and its editor seems thoroughly to understand that the single gold standard has not a single substantial argument behind it. Never-theless, he approves it.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin is printed right in the heart of the high tariff region, and yet it practically admits that the republican tariff measure will fall to pieces when it undertakes to undo the work of the gold standard

Wall street and in some of the Wall street newspapers there is a constant effort to deceive the public into the belief that prosperity is about to materialize. When some stock that is not worth, as an investment, the paper on which it is written, jumps up, the claim is at once made that prosperity is com ing with big strides; when the stock jumps down, it is said to be the result of a war scare that doesn't exist.

And yet, as The Republican says, "there has been much sobering down and it is likely to continue." The Boston Commercial Bulletin, true tariff believer as it is, says that all the symp toms so to show that wages in this country are slowly but surely "getting down to the European basis." And it adds that this decline in wages (under the gold standard) is "inevitable." The parenthesis is ours. Then The Bulletin goes on to remark that "it looks as though the days when this country could be called an undeveloped land have passed." Think of that! All our vast wealth of land, all our immense mineral resources, all our possible industrial improvement are to be counted as nothing-to remain as though they did not exist. The re marks we have quoted from The Bulle tin, with their full interpretation understood, fall on the ear like the ravings of an insane person; and yet every word we have quoted is literally true, provided the people get no relief from the single gold standard. How many weary months ago was I that The Constitution told its readers that if we had the European standard of value, we must inevitably have the European standard of wages? The two are inseparable. We warned the workingmen of the country during the last campaign that they were voting for pauper wages for those that could find employment at all, and voting into idleness thousands upon thousands of hones en and women. And yet they forme McKinley clubs, and howled for high tariff, and kneeled to Hanna, and went marching gayly to their undoing. No such horrible spectacle has been seen since the English prohibited the festivals of Juggernaut in India, preferring to rifice the natives in their own way. Well, the American workingmen sac rificed their interests to the interna tional gold syndicate, and did it with their eyes open. They would not listen to the truth. They closed their ears to it and went marching, with yellow ges and yellow umbrellas, to vote their wages down to the European basis down to the pauper basis. And now, one of the ablest of the rean organs, one of the strongest selievers in the efficacy of a high tariff, nces that American workingme prepare their minds to submit to the European basis or pauper and the able republican organ is right. If we are to have the European money standard we must accept the results an basis of pauper wages. standard we must accept the ri which that standard makes inevits

It is a significant fact that while the ditor of The Springfield Republican was writing his comments on the Boston

per's article, Mr. McKinley was in placidly bidding them to be of good cheer, for the tariff bill, the great restorer of prosperity, was on its way to completion. We have no doubt that Mr. McKinley really believes what he says, for there are minds so constructed that nothing short of an earthquake can convince them that a seismic disturbs is possible. As a matter of fact, the tariff measure will have no more effect on the wages of the workingmen than a toy balloon turned loose at a circus. Under the gold standard prices will continue to fall until the demand for gold ceases to be importunate, and as prices fall wages will fall until they reach the level of the pauper wages of Europe. But when that happens we hope the people of this country will decide to abolish the gold standard and substitute therefor the foint standard of gold and silver.

A Disturbed Contemporary.

The Montgomery Advertiser appear to be in some doubt as to what The Constitution means by "the democratic party." This is sad and yet not unnatural. The Montgomery paper has been so wrapped up in Cleveland and Clevelandism that it doesn't know the difference between democracy and republicanism and doesn't want to know. But it gives a guess, and, as an example of what Clevelandism and goldolatry will do for their votaries, we append the following choice specimen of summer argu-

If The Constitution means the men who nominated Bryan and thus insured the elec-tion of McKinley, it matters little whether they take their steps backward, forward or sidewise. It is not at all likely that they will ever again dictate the policy or candidate of a democratic convention, or, by again allying themselves with populists and populism, degrade the name of democracy and drag it down to deserved defeat. The thousands and scores of thousands of good democrats who were seduced into voting for Bryan under a mistaken sense of duty will not be caught in such a snare any more. One experience of the kind has been enough, and they will be on the lookout for traps in future. will ever again dictate the policy or cand date of a democratic convention, or,

It would be worth a good deal to our friend Watterson, of The Courier-Journal, if he could take so complacent a view of the situation, but as such complacency would indicate an acute attack of paresis, we would rather see Mr. Watterson restless, uneasy and worried. It is a very remarkable piece of writing to be found in a newspaper published at the capital of a state in which the democratic party, standing on the Chicago platform, is invincible. We doubt if in the whole state of Alabama there can be found a dozen men who, having indorsed the Chicago platform last year, would hesitate to indorse it now. On the other hand, there can be found hundreds of business men who, deceived by the specious cry of "unsound currency" and a "silver basis"-forgetting that for fifteen years after the war they prospered on a greenback basis-voted against their party, but who will no longer support the selfish schemes of the gold syndicates. From every part of the country comes the information that the democratic party is gaining strength every day and hour. Recent events prove it, recent elections show it. In Kentucky the democrats, stronger and more determined than ever, have just held their state convention and indorsed the Chicago platform. The same result will follow in Virginia, and wherever a democratic convention is to be held. The doors of the party are wide open to the bolters and to all who desire to aid in the restoration of prosperity to the people and the revival of onest government: but those who enter the hospitable portals of the party must submit to the inevitable conditions of membership-acquiescence in the views the party's candidates. These have been the conditions of membership ever since the party was founded, and will continue to be as long as the party exists. It cannot permit such men as the writer in The Montgomery Advertiser to enter into its councils for the purpose of destroying the organization. It will have nothing to do with men who refuse to abide by the will of the majority. For the rest, the Chicago platform stands as the fundamental law of the party, and the principles therein set forth are indorsed, or accepted, or acquiesced in by every democrat. The lines are clearly drawn in that platform and those who cannot stand on it have the right to form a party and make a platform of their own.

The Middle States.

In the June number of The North American Review Michael G. Munhall, the celebrated British statistician, presents his second article on the progress with the middle Atlantic group, including New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia. As this group comprises the wealthiest section of the country, the figures given by the statistician will be found interesting. The first item of progress which the statistician notes in addressing himself to the middle states is the one of population. He shows that in 1850 the population of these states was only 6,629,000, while in 1890 it was 14,141,000. Comparing the growth of the middle states with that of the New England states, he shows that the former have more than doubled the latter. In agriculture, according to the figures cited by the statistician, the group has made but little progress. Only two and one-half acres of land per inhabitant were under cultivation in 1890 against four acres in 1850. The following table shows to what extent the chief product of the farm have been cultivated since Mid'le Sts 2,256 17,818 $340 $1,260 These figures cover the salient features of the article. In his next article Mr. Munhall will probably discuss the growth of the southern states.

Russie's Industrial Commission. The industrial prejudice formerly en-tertained by the Russian government toward the United States is rapidly disappearing before the pronounced superiority of our American products.

Had it not been for German competi tion the trade of Russia might have been acquired long before this. Naturally our Teutonic rivals, on account of their close proximity to Russia, have supplied the industrial wants of that country for several years past; but, in spite of the intimate trade relations which have long existed between the two empires, Russia is beginning to realize that she can purchase some things to much better vantage in the United States than in Gemany.

Within the last few days, according to recent cablegrams, a special commission has been appointed by the Russian government to visit this country for the purpose of inspecting our American mathine products. Undoubtedly the appointment of this commission is due in some measure to the recent visit of Prince Michael Helkoff to the United States. Though Prince Michael came over to inspect our railway system, it is said that he made good use of his eyes while in this country and that, on returning to St. Petersburg, he carried with him a glowing account of our industrial prog-

But whether the appointment of this ommission is due to the visit of Prince Michael or not, it is certain that good results will accrue from it and that Russia will find it largely to her interest to purchase her supplies in this market.

The Drift of Population.

While the growth of our urban popu lation since the war has been phenome nal, it is painful to note that much of this increase has been wrought at the expense of the rural districts.

On good authority it is stated that, during the two decades extending from 1870 to 1890, not less than 6,000,000 people in the United States moved from the rural districts to the cities. If this process continues for any length of time it is evident that the growth of our cities will soon exhaust the rural districts completely.

But is this process likely to continue: Most certainly not. There must come time when the drift of population, instead of proceeding from the rural districts to the cities, will proceed from the cities to the rural districts; and already there are hopeful signs of this change. Improved facilities of transportation have virtually bestowed upon the farmer the same privileges enjoyed by his city brethren; and, without the slightest inconvenience, one can live in the country and yet make daily tring to the city. The force of this statement is emphasized by the number of suburba homes which are going up in the neighborhood of most of our large cities. Within the next few years it is likely hat this tendency to return to rural life will be even more distinctly marked than it is at present. Without prosperity in the fields of grain there can be no prosperfty in the marts of trade, and in vain will our cities increase in population if they are built up at the expense of the rural districts.

The party in Kentucky seems to be very much alive.

It is said that the gold democrats in Kentucky took no part in the primary conventions. They knew better than to display their weakness.

The statement is seriously made in Washington that Mr. McKinley's Cuban policy will be arranged to suit the necessities of the Ohio campaign. Think of that! " Tundal

American cruisers are still patrolling the high seas in behalf of the Spanish monarchy.

The dispensary issue is to be carried to the supreme court. Is it to be tried by argument or by sample?

The republicans don't care whether their work is unconstitutional or not, so long as they can loot the people fo the benefit of their campaign contributors.

The democrats in Kentucky have given a tip to the democrats of other states that will be promptly taken advantage of at the proper time.

If Cuba becomes a campaign issue in Ohio the senator from Spain (by way of Maine) will doubtless do a good deal of

As an evidence of this, it is stated "that it could easily pay the national debt of the empire, amounting to about £200,000,000, or nearly $1,000,000,000, and yet not be impoversished." This seems almost incredible, but it must be remembered that it has some very lucrative sources of revenue. One of the most profitable is the sale of candles.

A report to King Leopold, as sovereign the Congo State, by M. van Eetveld secretary of state, says that slavery cannot be directly repressed, but preventive meas-ures have been instituted in the shape of enal legislation, the regulation of lal contracts, the surveillance of caravans and the offorts made to diminish intestine wars and to put an end to cannibalism and human sacrifices. The state has now 118 stations and 684 agents, while the public force comprises 12,000 men. The number of missionaries—Belgian, English and Ameri-can—amounting to 223, is seven times great-er than at the outset.

Twentieth century people doubtless will speak of the "hell sticks" of the process, day as arimitive and absurd just present day as primitive and absurd, just as we are disposed to look with scorn upon the flint and steel of our forefathers. Al-ready there is on the market a gaslighter which affords more than a suggestion of the electric match of the future, a twist of the handle generating sufficient electric-ity to accomplish the purpose.

Dr Robert Bell, of the Canadian survey has been describing an exploring excursion he had undertaken during the past two summers into the simost unknown region directly southeast of Hudson bay and east of the Noddawai river. He discovered a new river which eventually found its way into Hudson bay. This river had remained into Hudson bay. This river had remained unknown, although within 200 miles of Ottawa. The whole region of his explorations might be called a plateau broken by isolated hill ridges. The climate was suitable for all ordinary crops. The soil was a rich brown clay. There was some large game in the region, which was entirely unsettled. There were no Eskimo. The country possessed an almost inexhaustible supply of timber, red and white pine, as well as spruce.

Dr. Karl Peters, in a lecture on "The Future in Africa," before the Foreign Press Association, in London, said that there were in Africa a number of cool and healthy high plateaux, where he found all conditions for agricultural and pastoral pursuits just as in his own country. A later generation of colonists would be able to use throughout the entire continent iron for their immediate wants, and in many districts coal required by modern industry. The native population, estimated at about two hundred millions, only require to be organized by the whites in order to mise the natural wealth of the continent. A sound connection of justice with proper severity toward the blacks was the correct principle to act upon. Africa required railways in every part. Rinderpest must be exterminated. The whole African question was the question of communication. healthy high plateaux, where he found at

Dr. Casey A. Wood states, "that every ophthalmologist has noticed that the wearing of veils is productive of weak eyesight, headaches, and some times vertigo, and nausea. This is due to the strain which is necessarily exerted by one or both eyes in order to see through the obstruction; the irregular figuring of the veil is also a source of annoyance. The weakest eyes suffer most; but where the vision is normal, they are able to bear the extra strain, and thus asthenopic symptoms, traceable directly to the use of the veil, usually escape notice." Dr. Wood states that after a series of experiments, he finds that every kind of veil affects the ability to see, more or less, the most observed.

The Columbus Enquirer-Sun sees in the sudden death of Hon, J. T. Olive in the west the lesson that a government office is the most undesirable and at the same time the most desired of all. "Especially," it says, "is the former so for the man who is past the meridian of life, or who has neared it. It takes him out of touch with business men and business, confines him to routine work, unfits him for other occupation, and when he loses it he is stranded, as it were, with little hope to work out his future. To the young man government work is not so hurtful. When work out his future. To the young man government work is not so huriful. When the change comes, as come it constantly does, under our system, he is young and bouyant enough and has perhaps saved enough money to enable him to take a hold upon something else, but even he is injured to the constant of th by his experience as a government em ployee, and must strive hard to accommo date himself to the new conditions which surround him." The Marietta Journal sees but one way for democratic unity, and "that is for all to agree to abide by the will of the majority. Unless this principle is first agreed on it is nonsense to talk about settling on any common ground."

Some time ago a young lady received a $5 bill from her father to be used in household expenditures, says The Columbus Ledger. She placed the bill in her bureau drawer and when she went to look for it again it was gone. Her married sister was boarding with her and had a colored girl hired as nurse, and the lady knew that no one else had access to the room who would be likely to take the money. The young lady sat down in her room to ponder over the matter. While she sat think-ing she happened to glance up at the wall and saw the nurse's hat hanging there. It was gayly bedecked with red ribbon, and a part of the trimming was a large red bow. As the lady looked at the hat a sudien thought struck her mind and she jumped up and took the hat down and examined it. What was her surprise to find, carefully pinned up in the fold of the ribbon, her missing $5 note.

Few realize that Gordon county has one of the most extensive and successful seed-growing businesses in the south. At Co-lima Messrs. Julian F. Hurt and Wooten M. Vary have devoted to seed growing over 150 acres. They grow turnip, mustard, okra, pepper and collard seeds, onlon sets, and of late they have devoted considerable attention to the growing of seed oats, wheat and corn. To cultivate, harvest and ship these seeds requires a large number of hands and some very intricate and costly machinery. The seeds are shipped to various points, many varieties going south, notably to New Orleans, while others are sent to Rochester, N. Y., and other places in the north and east. The turnip seed harvest is now on and in the course of a few days they will ship 10,000 pounds of these to New Orleans, Augusta and other southern points. Many of these seeds are imported from foreign countries and grown here. Captain Worthman, of the German bark Elmira, according to The Savannah Press, is the happiest man in that city, and wherever he meets any of his friends he wherever he meets any of his friends he tells them of his experience in the swamps. In company with Mr. Dan Zipperer and Mr. McAlpin he went in the swamps and canebrakes beyond Monteith station, hunting. The captain was separated from his companions and all at once he heard a incident with it a huge bear appeared and, as he thinks, made for him. Captain Worthman fired and wounded the bear, which again made for him, and the second shot rought him.

"I remember General Lopez well," says "I remember General Lopez well," says Mr. Antonio Ponce, a venerable resident of Columbus. "He came to Savannah in 1850, after having a varied and hazardous experience in Cuba. "Few of the present population have any distinct recollection of those honest, fervent, simple-minded, old circuit riders. They traveled from place to place on horse-back, carrying hymn books and Bible (for those were scarce articles in many places) and a change of linen in a pair of old-fashioned saddle bags. They arrived on Saturday and put up with some of the brethren over night. Services commenced Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and lasted about two hours. They didn't preach much love to us in those days, but they gave us hell without any variations. The Atlanta friends and relatives of the unfortunate Chinamen made every effort to get their two friends out of the predicament. Dr. Smith, of this city, made affidavits identifying the two Chinamen as two who had rented from him for years. With the identification papers were sent photographs of Sing and Hee by the surveyor of customs here. The papers worked all right and now the Chinamen are on their way home rejoicing.

The details of the grand reception to the two wanderers have not yet been made public. The affair will be great, however.

PEACH BRANDY TIME

HUNDREDS OF PEACH BRANDY STILLS TO BE OPERATED.

Thousands of Barrels of Peaches To Be Made Into Fine Old Liquor.

The peach brandy season draweth nigh. and the internal revenue department will soon be busy granting licenses for government distilleries, and in surveying for the bonded stills.

Every year about the time the peache begin to ripen the distillers in every counwhere the manufacture of brandy is allowed, make application for a license to manufacture brandy. Generally there are three or four hundred brandy stills run through the summer months, and when winter comes they are closed down and the distillers go out of business.

The next year if a distiller wants to again manufacture brandy he must go through the same regulations. He has to make application for a license, and the deputy collectors go around and survey a site for his still. Only about seventy government stills in Georgia run all the year round. These are for the manufacture of corn whisky and other kinds of whisky. Internal Revenue Collector Trammell stated yesterday that he expected an unus-

One at Niagara Falls.

Mr. T. J. Harper, city electrician, will leave tomorrow night for Niagara Falls, where he goes to attend the convention of the National Electric Light Association. He will be absent about ten days atten ing the convention and visiting the eastern pleasure resorts.

The electric light association is conposed of the electric light men of all the prominent cities of the country and several hundred delegates will attend the convention. It will be a very important assem-blage and electrical matters will be dis-cussed for the benefit of the members of the association and the public in general. Mr. Harper will go via Nashville to see the Centennial and he will also visit Louis-ville, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Buffalo and other northern and eastern cities. The convention will continue four days, beginning Tuesday, the 8th.

MR. PEASE WAS FINED.

The Recorder Heid That He Had Beer Guilty of Damaging Shade Trees.

Mr. W. C. Pease was arraigned in the police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of damaging shade trees. He moved a house and while the building was passing along Mangum and Markham streets several trees were bruised and the limbs broken.

Mr. H. L. Collier appeared as witness and he stated that the trees had been injured in front of property which he owned.

Mr. Pease stated that he had not intended to hurt the trees and had always made it a point to refuse to move houses when there was any danger to the trees on the streets. He did the best in the case cited and did not think any of the trees were permanently injured.

The recorder held that the law had been violated and entered a fine of $10 and costs. An appeal from this decision may be taken.

GO TO THE RIGHT OR BE ARRESTED

The New Law Will Be Rigidly Enforced at Once.

IT INCLUDES BICYCLE RIDERS

Chief Connolly Gives Orders To Have All Violators Taken Up.

THE NEW LAW READS

All Who Travel on the Streets Must Keep to the Right—The Chief of Police Talks.

People who travel the streets of Atlanta no matter how they ride, must hereafter keep to the right or they will have to appear before the recorder and pay a fine.

The chief of police has instructed the patrolmen to enforce rigidly the ordinance adopted by the general council May lith, and beginning this morning every person who violates the ordinance will be arrested This includes bicycle riders, and the wheelmen after passing through the recent wheelmen, after passing through the rece experience of bell-ringing must now very careful whenever they pass a vehic of any kind or another bicyclist to go to the right. If they don't they will quickly find themselves in the clutches of some vigilant

The ordinance which is to be enforced was

The ordinance which is to be enforced was introduced in council by Alderman Hirsch and reads as follows:

"Resolved by the mayor and general council, section 1. Be it ordained by the mayor and general council, section 1. Be it ordained by the mayor and general council of the city of Atlanta, That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall be the duty of every carriage, hack, buggy, dray, wagon or other vehicle, and also of the rider of every bicycle to keep to the right in traveling along the streets, avenues, public allays, lanes and ways in the city limits.

"Sec. 2.—Be it further ordained by the mayor and general council of said city, That any person convicted of violating the first section of this ordinance in the recorder's court, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, either or both of said punishments, in the discretion of the court.

"Sec. 2. Be it further ordained by the authority aforesaid, That all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed." Adopted,

What the Chief Says. Yesterday morning Chief Connolly stated his intention to have the new law rigidly enforced at once. In speaking of the mat ter to a reporter of The Constitution, he said:

"The new law was made at the request o the police department and it was a necessity for Atlanta is now a metropolis and the streets are daily crowded with all kinds of le to result in some serious accident. have had copies of the ordinance printed and given to the captains, so they could read it to the watches. It will be read for the first time to the morning watch an afterwards to the other two watches. have instructed the captains to say to the men that the law must be enforced an every violator promptly arrested. I wis the people to be given fair warning. The bleycle riders are particularly requested to be on their guard."

FORTUNES IN TINGLING BELLS

A Great Rush Has Been Made for Bi cycle Bells the Past Two Days. Nearly a thousand dollars has been spen in the last two days in this city for bicycle bells. This estimate is made by one of the best posted dealers in the city. He figures on their being 3,000 wheels in the city, which is certainly not too large. Nearly two-thirds of these were without bells when the law was put in force this week and have had to buy them to avoid being pulled. prominent dealer said he had sold nearly four hundred bells and that all the other dealers had the same kind of business These bells range in price from 50 cents up to two or three dollars for the silver plated ones. It is a strange fact that just as soon luxury that all the cheap bells disappeared and the higher priced ones were plentiful. All sorts and conditions of bells are now making the nights hideous on Peachtree and Pryor streets. For a while it looked as if the city would be over-run with cow bells and all kinds of ringable objects, but the firm hand of the law put a quietus on the would-be funny man. It is curious to watch the many places on a wheel that the inven-tive mind of the wheelmen canfind for attaching the little bells. The ordinary place for the bells is, of course, the handle bar, but all the bells are not put there by any means. Some are put on the frames, some on the seat post, some on the saddle and one inventive genius has his bell attached to the pedal and rings it with his foot. Most of the small boys incline to the idea of secreting the bell to fool the cops. If it were possible to make an invisible bell every messenger boy in town would have one before they had been on sale ten minutes. Nearly everybody covers their bell with their hands when they see a cop, just to enjoy the sport of seeing the poor officer make a fool of himself.

Several cow bells and dinner bells came up from the wilds of Decatur street and Au burn avenue, but they do not peal forth when the blue coats are near Altogether the bell law has created lots of fun for the jokers, it has been a source of great glee to the bicycle dealers and ever the watchful cop has enjoyed the sport. Meanwhile the pedestrian feels safer as the work of belling the wheels goes on.

council will meet tomorrow and comple he apportionment sheet to be acted upon by the council Monday next. The appoint tionments have been partially agree but several changes are yet to be nade by the committee. estimated that the committee will have at its disposal about $35,000 or $40,000 more than was counted on in January last when the first apportionment sheet was prepared. The receipts have exceeded the stimate and other sources of unanticipated revenue have increased the amount consid

The excess of money on hand will enable the committee to satisfy nearly all of the departments and the money will be appor-tioned among the several branches of the city government where it is deemed most advisable. The apportionment to be made ment of the year is made in October and by the action of the committee tom row will depend the work of all the departments for the year.

Mayor Collier thinks the council will e able to set aside sufficient funds to meet the legitimate needs of all the departments and he is well pleased with the financial condition of the city. A considerable amount has been saved by ecomical methods and the mayor is satis fied that all of the wants of the departments which are proper will be granted, enabling the departments to conduct the work properly and efficiently.

Chairman Peters, of the finance committee, has made a close study of the city's finances and he is able to point out just where the city's revenue is to come from and what can safely be accounted on. The work of the committee will be care ful and no changes are likely to be made in the apportionment sheet to be submitted at Monday's meeting of the council.

BEFORE THE RECORDER

It Was a Knotty Case and Judge Calhoun Reserves His Decision—Will Decide It Today.

The recorder had another case of blocking raijroad crossings yesterday afternoon. Patroiman Harper arrested Conductor W. R. Turner, of the Western and Atlantic railroad. Mr. Turner's train had blocked the Pryor street crossing for six minutes. The conductor stated that he could not help it, as his air brake had leaked and he was forced to keep the engine coupled while the break was being mended. It was a very knotty case and the recorder held up his decision until this afternoon.

"It is about time I was deciding whether the railroads are to run the city or the city the railroads," remarked the recorder, "but this is a very unusual case and I don't know exactly what to do. I will think over the matter and decide the case tomorrow afternoon."

chamber of commerce of the City of Mexico, said that Mexico obtained the greater portion of its supplies from Europe. He stated that an important fact that led to this was that European manufacturers and dealers gave from six to nine months credit to the Mexican buyers and the Mexicans were also liberal in their extension of credit. He said there were no cash transactions in Mexico as there were in this country. He says that the laws of Mexico gave strong protection to creditors and he suggested that American manufacturers should make a study of the credit system in Mexico. They would certainly find it advantageous and profitable to increase their trade in that country.

several months to ascend.

There is also another party from Italy bent on the same nission, now en route to the mountain. The race between the two will no doubt be highly exciting, as both are anxious to reach the top first. The ascent is exceedingly dangerous, and but few, if any of Latham's party may ever live to tell the tale. Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Cotton Letter. Atlanta, June 3 .- The only feature to the market today has been the stagnation. Outside business was very small, and the few transactions made have been for professional traders. Despite the absence of specsional traders. Despite the absence of speculative demand, however, the undertone of the market continues very steady, and there is little disposition to look for any gcod decline on the part of those who are bearish. In fact, everybody appears to be waiting, and until something of a more definite character shall be obtainable with regard to the prospective yield a comparatively dull market any prevail. Probably the government report on the 19th may stimulate some increase in speculation, but it is too early to form any reliable opinion with regard to this season's out-turn. Nevwith regard to this season's out-turn. Nevertheless if the bureau report is bullish, which the trade rather expects. It may exert temporarily at least a beneficial effect on prices. Cables this morning reflected a firmer market than had been expected, which found expression in an opening advance of 2 to 3 points. There was little change in quotations during the forenoon. While the feeling among traders is mixed, many well informed people take a hopeful view of the future course of the market in view of the fact that, in the face of all the efforts on the part of the bears to depress values, a firm undertone still prevails and prices have failed to yield materially. The final close showed an advance of to to 5 points over yesterday. New York spots 7%c; sales 1,112 bales. to this season's out-turn

Hubbard Bros. & Co.'s Cotton Letter. better markets in Liverpool with larger sales than any day during the past month. From there a few buying orders were received absorbing the local offerings, which were not so heavy as of late, as traders recognize the slow change in the temper of the business community. There is not an active demand for goods, but there appears to be a growing feeling and better business and a change in the mental status of merchants everywhere. Crop advices show no decided change. The weather is fairly favorable, but the prospects are recognized as not nearly as promising as at this time last season. Manchester has remained out of the market for nearly six weeks, and the increase in the business in Liverpool just before the mills close for the Whitsuntide holidays is thought to point to a continuance of this demand for cotton.

New York, June 3.—(Special.)—The dull-ness in cotton today surpassed even that of yesterday. Liverpool sent us surprisingof yesterday. Liverpool sent us surprisingly favorable cables. Futures there were slightly higher and the spot sales were again encouraging. Our market opened 2 to 4 points higher, August selling on the first call at 7.20, but there was no enthusiasm, and the business was almost nominal. Local scalpers sold in the morning and bought in the afternoon and their trading chiefly caused the fluctuations. August declined to 7.18, advanced to 7.21 and closed at 7.20 to 7.21 with the tone of the market dull. It is a waiting market and crop accounts will be closely watched.

The cotton market, though firm all day, with an upward tendency, was exceedingly dull, total sales of futures reaching but $2,400 bales, which represents one of the smallest days of transactions in many weeks. On the first call the market was steady with prices 2 to 3 points higher. After easing off 1@2 points early in the forenoon under selling by local operators to secure profits prices advanced 2 to 4 points, with the market finally dull at a net gain of 2 to 5 points. Considering our weakness late yesterday Liverpool was better than expected this morning. Private advices told of a sluggish future market with fluctuations restricted to a very narrow range. The spot market showed more animation than usual. cotton market, though firm all day

Dividends Passed.

From The Wall Street Journal.

The quarterly statement of the operations of the Fall River mills shows that fifteen out of thirty-eight mills have passed their quarterly dividends. In the February quarter twelve mills passed dividends. Dividends declared this quarter make an average of 87 per cent on a capital of $22,-133,000 or a disbursement or $132,590 compared with $22,200 paid in the February quarter. The majority of the mills declaring dividends have not earned them, but have paid same out of surplus.

The Dry Goods Market. New York, June 3.—The dry goods market continued dull today, with the buying contingent somewhat augmented, though continued dull today, with the buying contingent somewhat augmented, though with sales of small caliber. The market for fall style goods in both cotton and woolens shows a slight increase in interest, though buyers are still timorous about placing orders of any considerable size. Retailers report only a fair business, weather conditions being still unfavorable. As a consequence the trade in jobbing centers has been light in character, the duliness being accomputed by the coming stock taking season. In staple cotton there is nothing to add buoyancy to the market. Print loths are without change. Prints are gen

STOCKS STILL STRONG

There Was Liberal Profit Taking, but the Sales Were Well Absorbed.

LONDON WAS A GOOD BUYER

The Railroad List Showed Irregular Changes Samuel Post, Jr., Dies Suddenly on the Floor.

New York, June 2.—Prices on the stock exchange were in full swing upward all along the line today when Samuel L. Post, Jr., an old and popular member of the exchange, was seized with heart disease and expired almost immediately on the floor. This visitation of death put an immediate stop to the trading in stocks, and it was not resumed for nearly two hours. The volume of business was, in consequence, largely curtailed, many active operators withdrawing from the dealings for the remainder of the day. The confidence of yesterday with which all offerings were absorbed, and the large amount of stocks which had been bought for London account, were resold here and had its effect in London today on the tone of the market New York, June 3.-Prices on the stock in London today on the tone of the market there for American securities. There was active demand and advancing prices as long as the trading continued in London, and was the cause of large purchases here for London account. The buying was the most potent factor in the market, and, sup-plemented by the sympathetic strength radiated from some special stocks, it moved prices upward to a point materially above last night's close in the great ma-jority of stocks. But a rush of realizing sales in the closing transactions wiped out the earlier gains in a great many stocks and left them a fraction below last night's close, and were near the low point touched in a realizing movement earlier in the day. The selling to take profits at the close started in Chicago Gas, which had been most aggressively strong all day, rising in the final hour to 87, the high point at the present upward movement. A fall of over a point at the close induced selling in other stocks. Sugar also was the leader of the market with a total of 35,000 shares sold, and sagged 34 in the final dealings and had a strong influence in causing the final decline. There was manifest all day, in fact, a rather nervous watchfulness on the part of professional traders for the moment to take the high-est profits, and several notable selling movements occurred during the day. Rub ber preferred broke 6¼ at the opening and the common and preferred stock were fe-verish all day. But the buying for London account, the improved business by the com account, the improved business by the com-mission houses and the strength in the specialties served to give a strong under-tone to the market. The grangers were very heavy, Burlington was next to Sugar in the list with several large buying or-

The total sales of stocks for the day amounted to 196,710 shares, including Sugar 25,000, Burlington and Quincy 27,700 Chica-go Gas 25,500, Reading 25,000, Rock Island 6,100, St. Paul 14,400, Western Union 6,100, New Jersey Central 8,300, Southern railway preferred 8,400.

The bond market displayed unusual animation, the sales aggregating $2,138,000 despite the cessation of trading for two hours, occasioned by the demise of S. L. Post, Jr. The dealings embraced an extensive variety of issues in which marked gains were generally recorded. Considerable amounts of the middle grade and speculative issues were taken for foreign account. tive issues were taken for foreign account and a revival investment demand by domes-tic interests was noted for the gilt-edged mortgages. Improvement of 1 to 2 per cent were scored in many of the leading properties, and there were but few exception to the upward trend of values.

Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Stock Letter.

Atlanta, June 3.—The stock market was strong and fairly active today, allowing for the suspension of business for an hour and a half on account of the death on the floor of the exchange of an old member.

There was liberal profit taking, but the sales were well absorbed.

London bought all through the list of stocks having an international clientage, and there was further increase in commission bought all the sales in commission bought and the sales are the sales t and there was further increase in commis-sion house business. An improvement of over 1 per cent was scored by Chicago Gas on the signing of the gas bill by the governor of Hinois.

Jersey Central railled over 1 per cent on covering stimulated by an appearance of inside support.

Tobacco was strong on prospects that the anti-cigarette bill in Hinois would be killed.

rels of Irregular Goods. The officials of the internal revenue department have just seized a lot of whisky in Atlanta, and though they refuse to talk, it is very probable that the seizure will be followed by the prosecution of the firm that sent the whisky here.

The whisky was sold to Whisky Dealer Watson, who has lately gone out of business.

ness. It was sold by a firm of whole-sale liquor dealers in Cincinnati. Two barrels of the whisky were seized in the barroom of Clark, who runs a bar at No. 2 Loyd street. Another barrel was seized in the depot. The two barrels seized in Clark's bar were some that Clark had bought from Watson just before Wat-had bought from Watson just before Watson went out of business. The other barrel was shipped to Watson, but he having gone out of business, the whisky was not taken out of the depot.

It is alleged that the shipping firm was trying to swindle the government out of lawful taxes. One of the barrels seized was stamped 100 proof, whereas the contents showed up only 80 proof, which grade is far inferior to 100 proof. Then the barrels are said to have contained only forty-five gallons, though they were stamped fortygallons, though they were stamped for eight gallons. It is probable the firm be prosecuted at once.

Heavy Business Done in Corn at Higher Prices-Oats Firm and Higher-Provision 2 1-2c Lower.

Chicago, June 3.-Wheat closed today at Chicago, June 2.—Wheat closed today at 68%c for the July option, substantially the price it opened at, and an advance of %6-%c. Its lowest price was 68c, and it sold as high as 68%c. The immediate cause of the strength was the sensational advance at Liverpool, but there was too much realizing for all the advance to be maintained. Corn was strong and advanced. Costs closed %6%c higher, and provisions were 2½c lower to 5c higher.

In wheat the bull's had good reasons for maintaining their leading position in the were 2½c lower to 5c higher.

In wheat the bulls had good reasons for maintaining their leading position in the market. Yesterday's large cash business, over 250,000 bushels, was in itself sufficient reason for the strength with which the market opened. But added to this was an opening advance at Liverpool of ¼6%d, which market, in fact, supplied the bulls with all the news they needed. The initial rise there kept piling up until at the close 2½d advance had been established for the July delivery. The opening for July wheat here was from 68c to 63½c, against yesterday's close of 67% 667%c, and so little was for sale at those prices that in about twenty minutes after the opening 68½c was being freely bid, and some changed hands at 68%c. The bears at those advanced, prices sold enough to knock it down to 68%c again, where the bulls once more got their horns under it and tossed it up to 68%c. Chicago receipts were eight cars and the quantity inspected out of store was $4,562 bushels. Minneapolis and Duluth received 358 cars against 401 the previous Foreign Finances.

The market for American securities advanced somewhat, but weakened later and closed easy with the demand generally fair. Gold is quoted at Buenos Ayres today at 197.50; at Lisbon 46; at Rome 104.90; American eagles 76s 5d.

Foreign securities are quoted as follows; Turkish new defense group 2 (B) ½ higher at 37½; group 3 (C) ½ higher at 21½; group 4 (D) ½ higher at 21½; group 4 (D) ½ higher at 21½; group 5 (C) ½ higher at 21½; group 6 (D) ½ higher at 21½; group 7 (D) ½ higher at 21½; group 8 (D) ½ higher at 21½; group 9 (D) ½ higher at 21½; group 10 (D) ½ higher at 21½; ceived 358 cars against 401 the previous week and 427 the corresponding week last year. Exports from the Atlantic seaboard were equal in wheat and flour to 530,000 bushels. Continental cables showed none of the snap which prevailed in Liverpool, and that gave rise to the suspicion that the latter market was being manipulated from here. The cash demand was reported good, but business small, because of difficulty in getting spot wheat. New York wired that Liverpool houses were selling there. The unsympathetic character of the continental markets emboldened the short sellers near the end of the session and caused July to sell down again to 68%c, which was its closing price.

A heavy business was done in corn, largely in the way of buying in shorts, but also to some extent for the long account. There was a crop scare on the market, the recent cold weather having caused all sorts of unfavorable reports to pour in and a de-cided decrease in country official celpts were 944 cars. July opened a shade higher at 24c, advanced to 24%c and reacted to 24%c, where it closed. The market for oats was firm and quite a good business was transacted. The shorts covered freely and assisted mate-rially in the advance. Sympathy with wheat and corn were rather conspicuous factors, but the main cause was the good cash demand, with light offerings. July opened a shade higher at 18c, advanced to 184c, and closed at 184c.

Provisions opened easy and ruled weak

At the close July pork was 5c higher at $7.85, July lard unchanged at $3.57%, and July ribs 2%c lower at $4.27%. Estimated receipts Friday: Wheat, 9 cars; corn, 705 cars; oats, 440 cars, hogs, Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Grain Letter.

Atlanta, June 3.—The total cash business yesterday in Chicago was 265,000 bushels, caused a higher opening in the speculative wheat markes this morning, and prices later advanced a full cent above yesterday's final figures on the strong closing in Liverpool—1½ to 2½4d. Initial prices in Liverpool were quoted at an advance of only ½4d, the further advance during the session being attributed to short covering. On the bulge which followed holders were free sellers, causing a reaction of ½c, half of which was recovered with the feeling at the close steady. Cash transactions today have been restricted, owing to the difficulty of getting the wheat. The demand was reported good, but sales were light. Seaboard clearances were liberal. The bears started in as sellers this morning and have continued their operations on the short side most of the session, which accounts for the small gain for the day, considering the strength abroad. We think, however, the situation is favorable to holders.

The feature in corn has been good local and outside buying, influenced by reports from the west that continued cold weather is making the crop backward. Kansas City wired there was no corn offered, and that the warm, forcing weather is needed to prevent considerable replanting.

Oats were firm in sympathy with a good sharp demand for samples.

Free selling of lard and ribs by packers caused a further break in provisions early in the session, although there was good obuying on the decline by Chicago traders. This absorbed the offerings and caused a firmer feeling at the close, final figures being the best for the day. A good foreign demand for bacon is noted. Paine, Murphy & Co.'s Grain Letter.

Between the Acts.

Besides the unusual attraction that will be afforded the Atlanta public in the play to be presented by amateur talent the night of June 17th there will be a number of unique features introduced between the acts. Among them will be the singing of little Miss Emily Carter, of Dalton, Ga. She is the eight-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lillian Carter and has evinced the most remarkable vocal talent. On a recent visit to friends in Atlanta she sang at several functions and was invited by Mrs. Lowry and Miss Jennie English to take part i ng play to be given for the benefit

ATTORNEY CONLEY

His Case Consumed the Entire Day Yesterday in Court.

JURY'S CHARGE COMES TODAY

Conley Charged Reuben Arnold with Mutilating the Records,

GRAND JURY THEN INDICTED CONLEY

Evidence in the Case Delivered Yesterday Completely Vindicated
Mr. Arnold.

John L. Conley, the well-known lawyer, was placed on trial yesterday morning in the criminal court on the charge of perjury. The trial of the case, which lasted from o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was a hotly contest-ed legal battle between lawyers, and several hours of the day were consumed in heated debates upon legal differences between the state and the defense.

At 6 o'clock last night court adjourned until 8 o'clock this morning and the jury was allowed to separate upon consent of counsel. When court meets this morning Judge Candler will charge the jury and the papers, affidavits and other matters of evidence which have been tendered by both sides will be submitted to the jury.

Two weeks ago Mr. Conley was indicted by the grand jury for perjury. It was alleged that the attorney had sworn that Mr. Reub R. Arnold had sought to have changed a court paper, and it was to these charges that Mr. Conley made an affidavit pefore Mr. G. J. Dallas, a notary public. When the affidavit was made Mr. Reuber Arnold immediately began the prosecution of Mr. Conley. Mr. Arnold proved that he did not mutilate the paper complained of. and so far as he is concerned he has been completely vindicated of the charge which was made against him by Mr. Conley. So completely has been Mr. Arnold's vindica-tion that Mr. Conley testified in court yesterday that it was a mistake and that he had never intended to charge that the mutilation was made either by Mr. Arnold or at his instance. The evidence showed yesterday that Mr. Conley and Mr. Arnold have not been on speaking terms with each other for several years and that much bitterness existeral years and that much bitterness existed between the two men. As a matter of fact, there has been constant litigation between Mr. Arnold's client and Mr. Conley for a number of years and the present trouble grew out of a judgment which was secured by Mr. Arnold as the attorney for A. E. Buck, who successfully sued Mr. Conley and secured the judgment. After the judgment had been secured, the order of the superior court was so changed as to make a modification of the first order, allowing the judgment. When first order, allowing the judgment. When the second paper was made out the clerk of the court or his deputy pasted the new fi. fa. over the old one. Mr. Conley charged that Mr. Arnold had given directions that this be done and his affidavit to this effect is what caused his indictment before the

Mr. Arnold Gives His Evidence. After the jury had been secured Mr. Reuben Arnold was sworn and placed upon the witness stand.

The state was assisted by Colonel Luther Rosser, and Mr. Conley was represented by Albert & Hughes and Colonel Robert J. Jordan. Solicitor Hill read the indictment, which was corroborated by testimony of Mr. Dallas, who swore that he adminof Mr. Dallas, who swore that he adminstered the usual oath to Mr. Conley when the affidavit was made. Mr. Dallas said the affidavit had been written out and that Mr. Conley had signed his name, and ac-knowledged his signature when the affidavit was presented the notary to be attested.

Mr. Reuben Arnold testified that he had never asked that the fl. fa. in dispute be changed and he swore that all he had to do with the matter was to present the fi. fa. He declared he had never said one word to anybody about mutilating the fi. fa., and the paper itself showed that the writing in which the charges were made vas made by Deputy McFarlin and Clerk the jury.

He stated to the court and jury that he did not intend to say that Mr. Arnold had made the change, and he was of the opinion now that he had made a mistake. The argument in the case was completed late in the afternoon. The charge of the jury was postponed until this morning.

Chairman of Special Committees Are Much Encouraged and State That the Amount Will Come.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the sub-committee appointed for the purpose of se curing the amount asked by the executive committee of the State Agricultural As sociation for holding the fair will meet at

It is expected that the full amount of $4,500 will be raised by that time, and the bonus of $10,000 secured.

The state fair is assured. The men who have hold of the movement now are not of that nature which lets an enterprise lag when they take hold. They will push the fair to a speedy success.

All of the committees did good work yesterday, and in all departments large subscriptions came in. The retail dry goods men came up with a good pile, and the grocers were not far behind.

Mr. R. E. O'Donnelly, as chairman of the committee to see the dry goods men, did good work, and his quota is assured. Chairman George W. Scoville, of the committee to see the packing men, did good work, and believes that he will secure a subscription almost as large as that given to him for the Cotton States and Interna-"I made a more successful canvass to-

"We must have the fair here, that is the theory which I started out on and which must sustain."

Chairman Thompson was not very well yesterday and could not do much active work, but his representatives were in the field, and good subscriptions were secured. President T. B. Neal, of the chamber of commerce, was also unwell. He is greatly interested in the movement and made solicitous inquiry as to how it was progressing yesterday afternoon. He was not at his office in the afternoon but will be at the meeting today and will be on hand when it is announced that the amount has been raised.

The meeting this afternoon will determine the fate of the fair.

C. H. J. TAYLOR NAMED

AS DEAN OF MORRIS BROWN LAW DEPARTMENT.

Taylor Held the Office of Recorder of Deeds Under Cleveland's Administration.

An interesting meeting of the board of trustees of Morris Brown college was held yesterday. The election of a dean of the law school was the main subject before the meeting.

The names of a number of prominent colored lawyers were presented to the board and there was some discussion as to the merits of the proposed men.

When the name of Hon. C. H. J. Taylor, the distinguished colored lawyer, was sugested it met the unanimous approval of the board of trustees and the position of dean of the law department of this college will be offered to Taylor by Bishop Turner. C. H. J. Taylor is one of the most minent colored lawyers in the country. He practiced before the Atlanta bar. During the last term of President Cleve land, Taylor was appointed recorder of deeds in Washington city. The selection of Taylor for the important position of dean of law shows the esteem in which he is held by the rest of his people. The friends of Taylor say he will accept the position.

At Piedmont Park Friday, June 18th, Will Be a Special Occasion.

The Atlanta camp, No. 159, of the Confederate Veterans, known as the Old Camp, will give a picnic at Piedmont park Friday

It will be a novel affair, as the picnickers will leave the city at 10 o'clock in the morning and not return until 12 o'clock that night. All during the day the crowds will go out.

Extensive arrangements will be made for the occasion. A number of committees have been appointed to look after the different departments that will be connected with the picnic. Refreshments of all kinds will be served during all hours at the park. A band of over fifteen pieces will make music for the dancers in the spacious hall of the collseum.

The object of this picnic is to get money to help the old and infirm confederate veterans, whose conditions are painful. They are badly in need of help and the camp has decided upon this means of making enough to give them temporary relief.

NO U. S. RECEIVER WARRING ROADS

WILL BE RAISED Judge Pardee Affirms Decision of Judge Newman.

IMPORTANT POINT IS DECIDED

Decision Was Rendered in New Orleans Yesterday Morning on the Garner Petition.

An important feature of the Southern Mutual Building and Loan case was decided by Judge Pardee, of the United States esterday.

The case decided was the petition of Charles E. Garner and others, of Florida, who asked that a United States court receiver be appointed to take charge of the funds and assets in the hands of State Treasurer William J. Speer. The case was decided by Judge Newman several months ago, he decreeing that no receiver be appointed for the federal court. Garner's attorneys, Messrs. Tompkins & Alston, were dissatisfied with the decision of Judge Newman and appealed the case from the district court to court of appeals at New Orleans. The consideration of the case has just been finished by the appellate court and the decision announced.

The appellate court affirms the decision of Judge Newman in every particular. Judge Pardee decided that the petition for a United States court receiver should not be granted. He thought like Judge New-man that the security assets of the de-funct association were in good hands as long as they remained with the state treas

The decision rendered by Judge Parde means that Treasurer Speer will keep the funds in his possession. The money and assets which he holds will amount to over $300,000. The assets were placed in the hands of the state treasurer when the association was organized, in accordance with the law that requires that a certain proportion of the capital stock shall be de-posited with the treasurer as security for the stockholders of the institution. Colo-nel Speer will keep the assets until the business of the association is finally wound

The defeat of the effort of the Florida stockholders to have a federal receiver appointed will, it is thought, end the litigation in the case of the Southern Mutual, except in so far as relates to the collection of money due the association and legal suits necessary to the proper winding up of the business of the dead association. It is hoped and believed by all concerned that the state court receivers will now wind up the affairs of the asso-ciation with perfect harmony with all sociation.

IN ALABAMA

Mobile and Ohio Headed Off by Louisville and Nashville at Night.

WESTERN HAD BEEN ENJOINED

It Could Not Move, but Its Friendly

Officers Went Out to the Scene, but They Were Powerless To Interfere.

Montgomery, Ala., June 3.-(Special.)-The Louisville and Nashville blocked the Mobile and Ohlo's game last night. The latter road wanted to lay its tracks on the Western of Alabama's right of way or on ground claimed by the latter road. The Western did not want any intrusic and prepared to Keep the Mobile and Ohio people off its property. Then an injunction was obtained against the Western of Alsbama and it was forbidden to interfere with the projected extension of the Mobile and Ohio.

It was rumored early last night that the Mobile and Ohio had 100 men ready to put to work some time during the night to lay the track. Before this force got to the scene another large force was at dork putting in a side track. This was a force of Louisville and Nashville men. That company had not been enjoined and it wanted to get a track on the disputed ground.

but they discovered that the Western of Alabama was not violating the injunction because it had no hand in this move. There were fully 150 men working for the Louisville and Nashville and they soon had rails down and then freight cars were run in on the new track until the Mobile and Ohlo could not possibly get across. The Mobile and Ohio was outnumbered and outgeneraled.

When the injunction comes up in court a new light will be thrown on the case The Western of Alabama's officials claim that they have some evidence which will conclusively that they own the right of way claimed.

HARD TO DECIDE.

State Railroad Commission Is Study ing Two Cases.

state railroad commission did not reach a conclusion yesterday on the questions which were argued on Wednesday. As stated in yesterday's Constitution the points involved were hard to decide. The Blue Ridge Marble Company, the defendant in one case, has been complying with the board's rules and it is hard to frame a new rule which would prevent its practice of stopping marble in transit without interfering with the privileges of the flour and lumber mills which mill in transit. In the case of the Columbus street railway the point is whether the road is a street railway or a steam freight and passenger line. It seems to do some business of both kinds, but its principal business is that of a street railway, and therefore as a street railway not under the commission's control. If the part of the line which does handle freight cars is held to be a steam railroad, the company has the right to charge more for handling cars than it is now charging.

Both these cases will be allowed to rest for the present.

Mr. Huntington is a strong advocate of joint ownership of all roalroads in the country. He would have them all consolidated into a few systems, or if pos-sible into one. He says that if this were done rates could be reduced at lear; 5 per cent and still the roads would be able to pay dividends on stock which now never realizes a dividend. He also favors pooling and thinks that congress should author-

The people of the coast country are great patrons of the elegant steamers, but Mr. Egan thinks that if the people of the interior knew more about the pleasures of a sea voyage they would travel oftener by sea in going north and coming south. The Central is putting some interesting literature about this line and very appropriately includes a half-tone picture of the first steamship which ever crossed the Atlantic occur. That steamer sailed from Savannah just seventy-eight years ago this month. This ship was named the Savannah and when she first appeared off the Irish coast the people on shore thought that the savenage of the results of the savenage of she first appeared off the Irish coast the people on shore thought that she was on fire because they saw clouds of smoke floating away behind her. They did not dream that the ship was being propelled by steam because they had never seen a steamship before. Two cutters were sent out to the relief of the burning vessel and there was a great sensation on shore when it was discovered that the strange craft was all right.

LELAND IS WON OVER.

Suit To Prevent the Building of the New Road Is Continued. New York, June 3.-The statement made today that the suit brought in the New York supreme court by Reuben Leland, a holder of Mobile and Ohio railroad stock, to enjoin the execution of the con tract for building the Montgomery exten-sion of the road, will be continued. An agreement to this effect has been concluded etween the counsel in the case. This step permits the syndicate formed by Hallgarten & Co. and the contractors the company for the purchase of $4,000, the company for the purchase of $4,000,000 Mobile and Ohio bonds authorized for the purpose of this extension to proceed with its operation. The extension was decided upon by the Mobile and Ohio management because ?! was believed to be likely to increase the profits of the company to such ar extent as would bring the stock to a dividend paying point at a reasonable early date. dividend prearry date.

DURRANT IS BREAKING DOWN

GREAT CHANGE HAS COME OVER THE PRISONER'S DEMEANOR.

Murderer's Father Bids Him Be of Good Cheer and Not Lose Heart.

San Francisco, Cal., June 3.-Theo Durrant seems to be breaking down. A member of the death watch was seated at his cell last night, looking down on him as he tossed and tumbled in his restless sleep. The warden was at once notified of the change in Durrent's demeanor. Orders were given to increase the death watch and maintain the vigil with greater care than before

Captain Edgar commanded that a guard be stationed every minute of the day and night in the cage with the condemned man. Whatever Durrant may do the eyes of the guard will be upon him until he dies on the gallows.

Durrant's father carried to the condemn ed man yesterday the news that the United States district court had denied the writ of habeas corpus, and that the next fight for life must be made at Washington before the supreme court.

A special messenger will hurry across the continent, but he cannot reach Washington before next Wednesday. He will have the greatest good fortune if he receives an audience from the supreme cour that day. It is probable that a hearing will not be granted before Thursday of next week, and on the following day Durrant must die, if the national tribunal does not exert its authority.

The elder Durrant wept yesterday as he told his son the story, but he bade the condemned man to be of good cheer and not lose heart till the last hope was gone. If the journey is made without accident, a return staying the execution may be served by telegraph on the warden. Durrant said he would be brave. As he spoke to his father a wire screen and wooden bars separated thom.

At 10 o'clock this morning Durrant's attorneys will ask the court for permission to appeal to the United States supreme court. If this request is granted they will be satisfied, for they contend that it will act as a stay of execution.

HE STABS PATTON TO THE HEART Gilliland Kills His Son-in-Law and Is Now a Fugitive.

Birmingham, Ala. June 3.-(Special.)-Near Rockford, Coosa county, yesterday, Harris Patton whipped the ten-year-old son of Charles Gilliland, his father-in-law, for some trivial offense and the boy ran home erying and told his parents.

Gilliland became greatly engaged and went in search of his son-in-law, whom he found in the field superintending farm work. After a brief quarrel Gilliland drew a knife and stabbed Patton to the heart, causing death.

Gilliland escaped, but officers are after him. Both men were prominent farmers.

BURN TO WATER'S EDGE

ALEXANDRIA, VA., HAS GREAT-EST FIRE OF ITS HISTORY.

Washington Department, Five Miles Away, Was Called on To Extinguish the Blaze.

Alexandria, Va., June 3.-The greatest conflagration that has ever visited Alexandria broke out in Bryan's fertilizing mill on the river front shortly after midnight, and raged with great fury for about eight hours, causing a total damage of from $450,000 to $500,000, partly insured. The entire block, bounded by the Strand, Duke, Union and Prince streets, was almost completely wiped out, only one warehouse with its contents, being saved.

The section is covered principally by warehouses and manufacturing properties. Definite insurance figures are not avail-

The alarm was turned on at 12:20 o'clock this morning, and when the firemen reachframe building, with metal covering, was beyond saving. A fierce wind was blowing, and for a time the whole town was threatened. The engine house across the street from the Bryan place was immediately razed to the ground, and the flames gained in fury and swept to the Old Dominion Atchison's coal yard and Godfrey Laundry Company and the Old Pioneer mills, all being quickly gutted. The fire extended for almost two blocks along the river and burned most of the wharves to the water's engine company No. 4, under Assistant Chief Belt, went down on a fire boat. The block, in the meantime, had become a roar-ing blaze, but the firemen did effective work, and by 4 o'clock this morning the flames were under control, though the ruins were smoldering all day long.

The belief that the seasons are changing is colder now than it was when he was a boy. But records-indisputable facts-thirty-eight years ago. Though warmer, it does not show that the seasons are chang-ing, even to be warmer. Since the first records in 1859 the average temperature for April, according to the observations at Washington, has constantly changed backwards and forwards, as uncertain weather will do, but there has been no permanent change, and the tendency of what little fluctuation there has been entirely refutes the claim that exceeps are testing lates. the claim that seasons are getting later. In 1859 the mean temperature for April was 60 degrees. Last year the mean temperature for the same month was 66 degrees, or 7 degrees warmer than thirty-eight years 7 degrees warmer than thirty-eight years ago. In 1866 the average for April was 62 degrees, but two years later the mean temperature for April went down to 58 degrees. From that time to 1880 the temperature for April has varied from 54 to 64 degrees. Since 1880 the mean temperature for April has fallen below 60 degrees but twice, all of the other years having tolerably warm Aprils, with temperatures ranging from 60 to 64. This year the mean temperature was 60.

to 64. This year the mean temperature was 60.

Forecast Official J. B. Marbury says that people need feel no alarm on the score of changing seasons. According to him the seasons begin at the same time they always did. All changes must, therefore, be assigned to local causes, such as lack of protection from cold winds. The forests have been cur down and now the young crops are not protected from the blighting, frosty winds as they once were. The farmer may take heart. There is no danger of July ever coming in the middle of winter or January becoming a hot summer month.

or Colder.

Are the seasons changing? That is the question asked by old people every day, and from their persistent belief that the seasons are changing, one would be led to believe that such was really the case. An old farmer will say that the springs are later than they used to be, and it has grown to be a generally accepted belief days of spring.

But facts explode that theory. Last year grew out of the fact that farmers all over he country have of late years complained than they formerly did. They say that if they plant corn now as early as they did forty years ago, they cannot get a stand, and that the frost will kill the young plants. It is the same way with cotton. Some of the old farmers claim that they used to have a good stand of cotton by the middle of April, whereas this year hardly any seed were planted by that time, and on a great many farms the cotton is just now coming up. They lay this to a gradual change in the season. Nearly every old farmer in Georgia will claim that April prove that this is not true. "April was warmer this year than it was

PUPILS OUT TODAY JUDGE NEWMAN HOME

The Grammar Schools of the City Will Returns from New Orleans Yesterday

WILL HOLD COURT NEXT WEEK

Large Number of Moonshine Cases for Trial-Only Three Important Cases.

Judge W. T. Newman returned yesterday from New Orleans, where he has been for two months presiding in the United States circuit court of appeals.

He went from the depot to the government building on his arrival and called on the officials of the government. He seems to be in splerdid health, notwithstanding the hard work which he has been doing.

Judge Newman comes home to hold the hard work which he has been doing.

Judge Newman comes home to hold court here. There are a number of cases that demand immediate attention, and he will hold court for one week so as to dispose of the more pressing cases. He will convene both the district and circuit divis ions of the United States court Monday morning and will hold for the remainder of the week. Monday week he will go to Columbus to hold court in the western di-vision for one week. He will then return to Atlanta and resume the sitting here. Among the most important can to be heard on his return from Columbus is the transfer case.

There are no cases of importance on the docket for next week. The calendar is made up of petty moonshine cases, and three or four of another nature. The most important will be that against Stone Keel, a Newton county farmer, charge with counterfeiting.

It is charged that Keel, who is an igno and with these improvised molds out of lead, and with these improvised molds manufactured spurious coin. It is charged that he sold some of the molds to other

Another case will be that of Alfred Hardin, a young white man of Chattoog county, who, it is alleged, broke into and county, who, it is alleged, broke into and robbed the postoffice at Kartah, Ga., in Chattooga county. It is charged that Har din stole from the postoffice a lot of stamps, stamped envelopes and money to the amount of nearly $50.

A case of considerable interest is that of the government against John Skelton. Skelton is accused of using the mails to work a slick scheme. All of the three above mentioned cases are set for Monday The remainder of the week will be devoted to the hearing of moonshine cases.

GREAT BALL IN ATLANTA. University of Georgia and Virginia To Meet in This City. One more college game of baseball be played in Atlanta this year. The ball tossers from the University of Georgia will cross bats with the team from the University of Virginia. These are the two great teams of the south this year, and the two games to be played here this year will be watched by the entire college world, as they will finally decide the championship of the south.

The dates for the two games are for June 17th and 18th, 'unless some change is made later on. Three games are to be played, but the first game is to be played in Athens. That the two games in Atiania will be the best of the year is a fact. Both teams have a long list of victories to their credit this year, and both will be in perfect condition when they get together here next month. The Georgia boys have had a long rest, and they will be in fine fettle when they go on the diamond. The Virgin-ians have been going through the same light practice that the Georgians have for the last few weeks, and they will be in the same good condition.

Sanford, the young pitcher, is again in fine condition, and when the Virginia bat-ters face him it is expected by his companions that he will treat them as he treated the team from Pennsylvania.

Richardson, the other Georgia pitcher, is in fine condition, and he will pitch one of the games here. The Virginia team is said to be very strong this year, and they have seldom met defeat at the hands of any southern
